Assignment: FREE PROJECT #3- Show your Stuff!

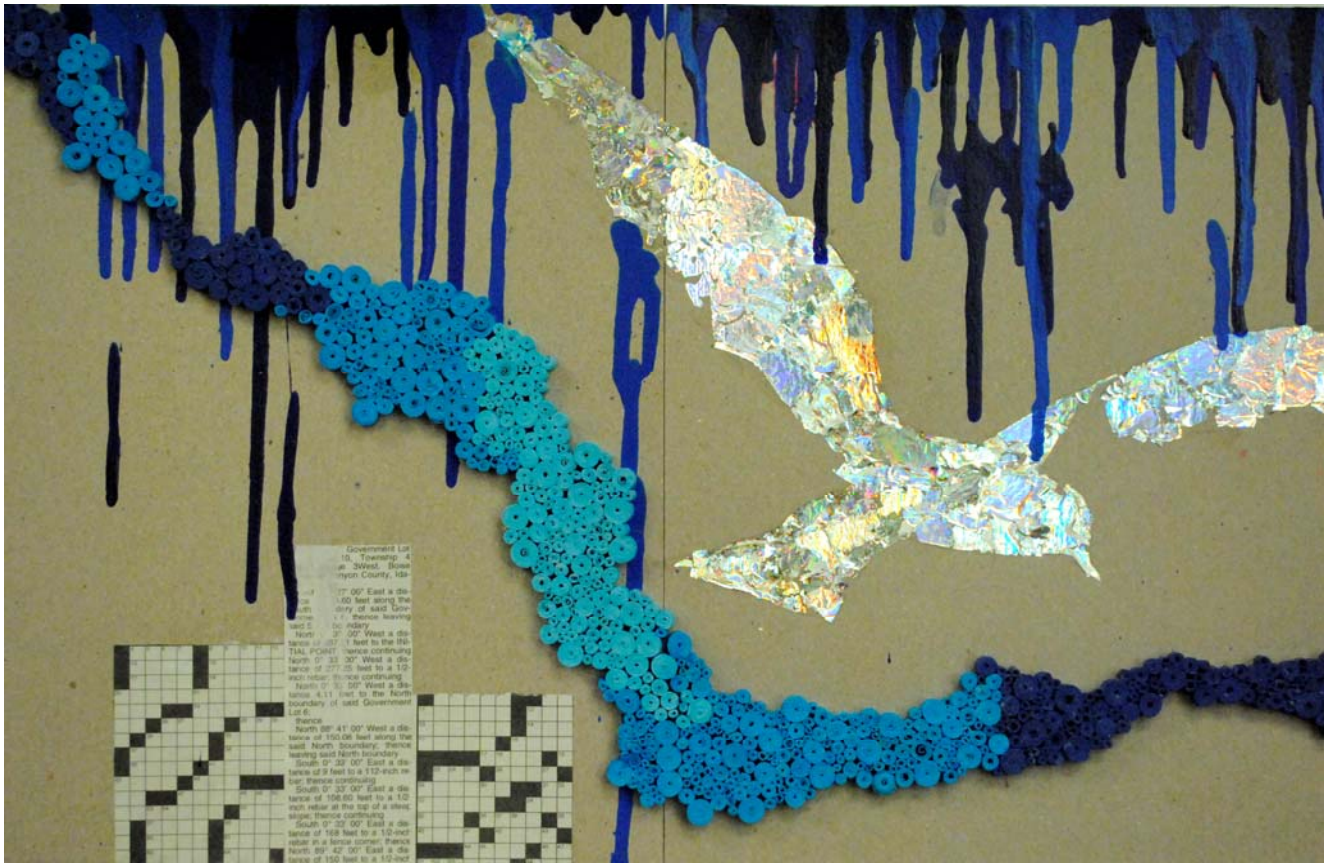
NOTES:

Happening- An event or entertainment presented by an artist or group of artists which combines elements of theatre and the visual arts and often involves spectator participation

School- Used to describe a group of artists working under the influence of a single master or sharing common characteristics because they come from a particular region or town, or practice the same local style

ASSIGNMENT:

During the next eight classes you will have free choice on what you are going to create. Your criteria is that you are showing off your skills, as if this is the final project you ever get to make, so it has to be the best! Any medium, any size, any subject.



By Jenni Krigbaum